CAPE ROYALE SCOOPS UP TWO NEW WORLD LUXURY HOTEL AWARDS

(Cape Town, December 2014) Placed in a league of their own, the cosmopolitan Cape Royale Luxury Hotel adds yet another two accolades to their plethora of awards scooped up this year! The World Luxury Hotel Awards ceremony and gala dinner was held on Saturday 6 December in Camps Bay, Cape Town, South Africa.

The evening dazzled with glitz and glam as guests arrived adorned in ball gowns and draped in jewels for this momentous occasion. Gathering from around the globe attendees represented the world's finest hotels and spas from 144 countries. Of the 120 coveted hospitality accolades, The Cape Royale took home: Continent Winner in the category: Luxury Rooftop View Hotel and Country Winner in the category: Luxury Suite Hotel.

The Cape Royale is an all-suite 5-star hotel, located in central Green Point, just a 10-minute walk from Cape Town Stadium and the V&A Waterfront. Guests of the luxury Cape Royale have a choice between 5 dining options including The Banting Kitchen that offers an exceptional menu and a fresh alternative to modern day dining. There is also a pool bar offering views of Cape Town Harbour and Table Mountain, as well as a modern gym featuring state-of-the-art cardiovascular equipment.

Featuring contemporary décor, luxurious fabrics, fine textures and carefully selected artwork the Cape Royale Hotel creates an ambiance of elegance and understated opulence, boasting panoramic views over the city and the Atlantic Ocean. The rooftop cocktail and sushi bar too boasts 360° views for a picturesque poolside experience.

Says Cape Royale Luxury Hotel Revenue & Marketing Manager, Vincent Boucher: "We are only too thrilled to be awarded such fantastic and honourable awards; the gala ceremony certainly plays a great role in seeding awareness through international tourism industries."

Amongst the leading international hoteliers gracing the red carpet at the World Luxury Hotel Awards were SA celebrities Derek Watts - Carte Blanche Anchor, SA Gold Medallist swimmer Ryk Neethling, international model Sahar Biniaz, radio show host and SA personality Natalie Becker, Espresso Breakfast Show TV presenter Katlego Maboe, Roxy Louw – SA's blue eyed surfer model, and Lars Schwinges of Top Billing to name a few.

The evening was a celebration of the finest in hospitality, showcasing South Africa as an iconic landmark to an audience of international acclaim.
